

My comments are in regards to "Rules and Regulations implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991-CG Docket No. 02-278". I currently work for a teleservices firm and am concerned that the proposed changes will limit our ability to function and will result in the loss of my job and my current co-workers. Please focus on the current laws and go after the firms who are not following them.